

Jeffy's Muessings

Good morning, It is Saturday morning. Jeni is cooking breakfast, Will is camping with boy scouts in Turner Falls, Lori is in College Station (I think) and Cindy went to Canton. Life is good. I thought this would be a great time to kick out something to all the masses or mass or mieces or you guys.....Breakfast was good, really it was lunch but it's the weekend. Lunch will be dinner and dinner will be late night snack that I get to sleep on and store up for a rainy day. Speaking of rain, we need some and I mean now. Please good Lord, make a few angels cry and send some tears of joy to out brown yards. We are a foot below average for the year. I really enjoyed the mud shower last Sunday. I was shooting baskets with Will and I thought a bird had dropped one on me. Then two then three and then went inside spotted.

Those of you who made the Thanksgiving lunch, and you know who you are, we are glad you came. It was fun and a great way to kick off the holiday. It is always nice to see some Exchange family before you go and argue with your own.

We had the Christmas for Kids shopping last Wednesday. How many of you went to EHCC that day? I bet a few. I got to Wal-Mart at 11:35am. Donnie the Red Shirted Elf almost had a heart attack. Yes, Don I can keep a schedule once in a while. There were other elf shoppers all over that store. We had tall elves and short elves; we had thin elves and round ones too. They were all ready to roll, not just the round ones. We shopped for a few hours and racked up quite a bill. Thanks to Wal-Mart ($1000.00) and Bret Packer-Packer Brick ($500.00) and some strange lady passing by ($20.00) this bill was a lot less. Thanks to all who came and bless you for your efforts. Thanks to Rotary too. They are good people also. It is a lot of fun shopping for the kids. It's always fun to compare what each on might ask for. I had to help a few people on what to get their kid. They were out of practice. They said I would know since I was still just a kid myself and still had a couple in my house. Just think like a kid and then go shopping. A few went over to dump the gifts at Marcela's and then went off to Dos Banderas for Fiesta. I heard it was a fun lunch and Donnie the Gay (happy) Elf picked up the check. Don't forget we have the wrapping party at 5:30pm this Tuesday at Marcela's credit union office. It is located of Austin street downtown Garland. Guys be sure and bring some scissors and real guys be sure and bring some tools to put together about 7 bikes. It will not be too difficult as long as the girls help. We will need someone to read us directions. That is a slam on the guys not the girls just in case one or the other is upset about what I just said. The Christmas party will be the following day Wednesday at the Hella Temple at 11:30am. Come to that too. It is a great time, had by all and the kids really love it. Be sure and come. We need all the help we can get Tuesday and Wednesday. It will leave you all funny inside and that's a good thing.

The following week of the 14th we have One Nation Under God lunch. Be sure and attend this lunch. It will be uplifting to all. Bring a guest or bring another member that has not attended in a while. Bring a veteran to the lunch. We need 100% cooperation for this lunch. Come and hear Chaplin Hyder speak. Come and hear the choir Don has coming for us. Come and hear Tokar sing. Jeff I need to talk with you about that and the prayer too. It will be one of the best lunches we have all year. Do not miss this luncheon.

In closing I want to let you in on something.

Will came home last week and said "dad I thought you might want to read this." I replied "What have you done now Will?" I should have kept my mouth shut.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Muessig, Congratulations! Your son William has been selected by his teachers at Vanston Middle School to be a recipient of the Young Citizenship Award. The criterion for William's selection was base on leadership qualities, continual effort to work toward full potential, and a positive attitude with peers as well as the adults on the campus. His outstanding citizenship and efforts have been noted by the teachers.

Sincerely,

The Exchange Club of Mesquite

Karen Hunt, President

Yes I am proud and yes I did double check to make sure they had the right kid. Exchange is all around us and can even come into your home when you least expect it. We should all be proud of Exchange. See you Tuesday evening.
