Accepting the divine privilege of single and collective responsibility as life's noblest gift,

I covenant with my fellow Exchangites:

To consecrate my best energies to the uplifting of social, religious, Political and business ideals;

To discharge the debt I owe To those of high and low estate Who have served and sacrificed That the heritage of American citizenship Might be mine;

To honor and respect the law, To serve my fellow men, and To uphold the ideals And institutions of my country;

To implant the life-giving, Society-building spirit of service and comradeship In my social and business relationships;

To serve in unity With those seeking better conditions, Better understandings, and Greater opportunities for all.

Coffee from Starbucks

What a fun time the members had on Wednesday with Cathy Haug from Starbucks. Cathy brought two blends of coffee with complimenting pastry. She told us so much about coffees and the process by which they are transformed from beans into a delicious brew with a wonderful aroma. Cathy had us "sniffing" the aroma on the one of the blends of coffee and then tasting and swallowing the coffee. After that we sampled a pastry to clear the pallet and moved onto the next coffee. Cathy presented a very interesting and fun program. And for those who weren't coffee drinkers there was tea available.

QUARTERS FOR KIDS

President Dave Weeks gets the first slice of pie from Jan. Jan brought a pie from Patricia's Diner to auction off. The proceeds would benefit the Quarters for Kids fund. I figure at $5 a slice we ended up with 160 quarters. poor Dennis having to carry all of them to the bank.

Thank you Jan for bringing the delicious pie

Thanks

Charlie Freeman received a check in appreciation for his selling the most raffle tickets for Boots-n-Bar-B-Q from Marcela Minahan

The GAKABTR Program will not be done for the months of June, July and August. It will resume in September.

We will be doing a quarterly activity in late June
