September 28th, the last Wednesday of the month, the members of Noon Exchange were privileged to hear speaking Patty Granville. Patty is the idea behind the Garland Summer Musicals and the one in charge of the Performing Arts Center (PAC). The idea for the Garland Summer Musicals was presented in an Editorial in the Garland Daily News in 1983 and blossomed from there. It has become a staple of the Garland Arts District. Since the establishment of PAC there has been much excitement and expanding at what is now the Granville Arts Center. We are very happy that Patty came and spoke to us – Thank you Patty
